What kind of classified documents was the FBI looking for when it raided President Trump's home at Mar-a-Lago? Was it nuclear secrets, as the media suggested, or just any and all classified documents? Well, it's time for Glenn to head to the chalkboard, because the timeline of the events leading up to the raid has a lot of "convenient" coincidences that all revolve around one thing: Trump's attempt to declassify materials related to the FBI's Crossfire Hurricane investigation...

0:00

we're going to take you through a little 0:01

time frontline from trump's departure

0:04

from the white house and the classified

0:06

information now we start

0:09

right here one day before the president

0:11

left the white house he issued this memo

0:15

trump was

0:17

declassifying certain materials

0:20

related to the fbi crossfire hurricane 0:22

investigation

0:24

what could that be

0:26

now i want you to keep this in mind

0:29

because president trump has claimed that 0:31

everything the fbi sees

0:33

has been declassified

0:36

is it maybe

0:37

this

0:38

well as you see the timeline i think 0:40

you're going to say yeah

0:43

january 20th

0:44

he leaves the white house okay he 0:46

disagree he uh he uh declassifies all

0:49

the russian gate stuff

0:51

president trump's chief of staff said

0:53

most of the russia gate documents

0:56

had been sent to the doj for uh

0:58

redactions but as per newswk reporting

1:02

27 boxes of material had been sent

1:05

accidentally to mar-a-lago remember this 1:08

was not the political people this was 1:10

the gao the government accounting office

1:13

they're the ones that packed everything

1:15

up so there weren't any political people

1:17

well this kicked off conversations

1:20

between trump's team and the national archives to find out what needed to be

1:22

1:24

shipped back

1:26

so let's let's jump ahead to this year

1:30

on

1:30

january trump team transferred 15 of the 1:34

27 boxes they went to the national

1:37

archives

1:39

now some of those reportedly were marked

1:40

classified we still don't know you know

1:44

if they were nuclear secrets or not

1:48

but part of the documents we know were 1:50

declassified back in january 2020

1:53

remember this

1:54

it also shows that trump's team was 1:56

working with the government

1:58

so why would you take an ex-president

2:01

and march people out for a raid well

2:03

getting ahead of myself on march 24th in 2:06

the middle of all of this trump stayed

2:09

on track

2:10

yeah

2:11

this is what he was really concerned

2:13

about he filed a rico lawsuit going

2:16

after hillary clinton and everyone else

2:18

involved

2:21

in russiagate

2:23

you know getting justice for the 2:24

collusion fiasco that had been constant

2:27

now i find it interesting that this 2:29

occurred at this time

2:32

why

2:33

well it was just a couple of weeks later

2:36

on april 7th that it was leaked to the

2:40

washington post by unnamed doj sources

2:44

because of course

2:46

the goj was investigating improper

2:49

removal of presidential records at 2:51

mar-a-lago now that's crazy timing isn't

2:54

it i mean boom

2:55

boom

2:57

trump was trying to get russia gate

2:59

documents declassified some went to 3:01

mar-a-lago and some got sent back to the

3:03

archives then trump files a lawsuit

3:06

regarding russiagate

3:08

and the men in black start saying we should investigate because he probably 3:12

3:10

got nuclear secrets

3:14

in may it was reported that the doj

3:16

formally subpoenaed more documents

3:19

something had them spooked and i'm sure

3:21

it had nothing to do

3:24

with the rico case right

3:27

you know consider that we're we're not 3:29

supposed to notice all of these little 3:31

coincidences here they're they're 3:33

convenient coincidence but it's just 3:36

coincidence now

3:38

you look at this timeline which they 3:40

don't want you to do and you say okay

3:43

all right maybe then on may 12th the 3:46

washington post

3:47

again

3:49

had a leak at the doj

3:51

unnamed sources a tip at the toj

3:55

they were telling them now at the 3:57

washington post that they were using a

3:59

grand jury to issue a subpoena to the 4:02

national archives so they could see the 4:04

15 boxes that trump teams handed over

4:08

back in january now why would they do

4:10

that

4:11

why why why

4:12

why would they need to issue a 4:15

call together a grand jury to read

4:17

documents that trump had already turned

4:19

over to the government

4:22

unless it was something they were afraid

4:24

of 4:24

and i can't imagine what it might be 4:26

anyway on june 3rd the fbi went to 4:30

mar-a-lago they got a tour of the vault

4:33

where the documents were stored i hope 4:36

they had uh the ground stake because 4:39

it's delicious anyway the documents were 4:42

stored they looked through them they

4:44

were allowed to look through the boxes

4:46

again trump is like whatever you want to 4:47

go through the boxes

4:49

but after the doj looking through the 4:51

docks at the archives and now the fbi

4:54

sending agents to rifle through the 4:56

boxes at mar-a-lago

4:58

it looks like they're looking for 5:00

something

5:01

you know

5:02

something that made them nervous

5:04

nothing's making me nervous where is it

5:06

where is it where is it

5:07

trump clearly not concerned about 5:09

anything he has

5:11

had or had already given back to the 5:13

government is just standing there

5:15

looking at them like they're a bunch of 5:17

ridiculous apes

5:20

now

5:21

here's where things start to get even 5:23

weirder

5:24

on june 19th trump appointed former 5:27

national security official cash patel

5:31

and journalist john solomon as his 5:33

official representatives he names them

5:36

representative the national archive

5:38

remember for him

5:40

remember he had previously returned 15

5:42

boxes to the national archives the doj

5:45

was concerned about them going so far as 5:47

issuing a grand jury and now trump was 5:50

sending his own guys i assume to see if 5:52

there was any funny business going on 5:55

remember trump's primary objective here

5:58

and we saw that when one of his last

6:00

acts was to 6:01

oh declassify

6:03

all of the documents that would show any

6:06

kind of collusion

6:08

at all with the fbi doj hillary clinton

6:12

you know any of those people maybe joe

6:15

biden

6:16

he would like them to be seen but the 6:18

government doesn't seem too keen on that

6:21

now just two days later on june 21st

6:23

trump kept on track he continued his 6:26

rico lawsuit on hillary clinton and 6:28

everybody else that was part of 6:30

russiagate

6:31

that same day cash patel did an interview where he said this 6:36

6:33

to identify every single document i can

6:38

tell you now

6:40

that i am now officially a 6:42

representative for donald trump at the 6:43

national archives and i'm going to march 6:45

down there i've never told anyone this 6:47

because it just happened and i'm going

6:49

to identify every single document that 6:51

they block from being declassified at 6:53

the national archives and we're going to 6:54

start putting that information out next

6:56

week

6:57

next week

6:59

it wasn't too too long later that all of 7:01

a sudden mid july garland starts

7:03

considering a green light on the 7:05

unprecedented raid in mar-a-lago

7:08

again the word of this evening's program

7:10

is convenient we all know what happened

7:13

next the fbi commenced with a raid on 7:15

august 8th

7:17

one day after the raid august 9th the 7:19

welsh respected investigative journalist

7:21

paul sperry was permanently suspended on twitter

7:25

7:26

for doing his job as a investigative

7:29

reporter

7:30

he tweeted investigators reportedly met

7:33

back in june with trump and his lawyers

7:35

in mar-a-lago storage room to survey

7:38

docs and things seemed copacetic okay

7:41

true then the fbi raids weeks later all

7:45

true

7:46

speculation on hill fbi had personal 7:49

stake and searching for classified docs

7:52

related to its spy gate scandal

7:55

oh my gosh he added then in other words

7:58

the fbi might be covering his own their 8:01

own tracks while using the presidential 8:03

records act as a pretext for the 8:05

mar-a-lago search

8:07

huh

8:08

what part of that got him shut down by 8:12

the way do you know one of the guys that

8:14

was working for the fbi um and was part 8:16

of all of this stuff he's now working at 8:18

twitter and then

8:20

weird

8:21

sperry would later publish this piece

8:24

revealing that many of the fbi agents

8:26

that were involved with the russiagate

8:27

thing were are now leading the 8:29

investigation on mar-a-lago

8:33

wait

8:34

did you hear that

8:36

it wasn't just me right

8:39

last week

8:42

last week august 17th

8:45

that's when he put that because newsweek

8:47

also reported that the fbi was in search

8:50

of documents that included trump's 8:51

collection

8:52

of papers showing who was involved in 8:54

russiagate hmm

8:57

now i don't know about you

8:59

but you look at the timeline

9:03

and it looks like they're looking for 9:05

these papers
